There is Anarchy in Europe and Hannarchy in this country, and both ought to be wiped out.

Ensley, Ala., is soon to have a $2,000,000 rod and nail mill. Alabama iron men are branching out.

A Wisconsin church refused to raise the salary of its pastor and then suspended him for playing poker. He didn't like that deal.

A Northern contemporary discusses "our duty in the Philippines." Our duty in the Philippines is to keep out of the Philippines as much as we can.

General Collins, of Boston, thus sensibly offers a solution of the Philippine problem: "If the Philippines are not capable of self-government, we do not want them; if they are, let them set up for themselves."

Some people think the last degradation is rough on Li Hung Chang. Pshaw. The old fellow is so used to having his peacocock feathers pulled that he doesn't mind it half as much as a rooster does moulting.

Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, showed a discriminating judgment in declining to throw up a soft snap as Senator for life for a couple of years' exhibition of himself, and a chance to spend all the money he has saved, as Ambassador to England.

The Governor of Mississippi must be a terrible fellow. One of the papers there says he is in his quiet moods as gentle as a Quaker maiden, but when aroused and scoring his enemies he is a tempest, a tornado and a volcano combined. That's worse than our Governor. He just cusses some.

Some of the European money lenders think that Cuba ought to pay a portion of the Spanish debt, which was contracted before the war for independence. This means that Cuba ought to pay about $406,000,000. But as none of that debt was contracted for the benefit of Cuba, and Cuba didn't derive any benefit from it, Cuba can't see it. She thinks, and rightly, too, that she has paid entirely too much for Spain already, and got nothing but kicks and cuffs for it.

Col. A. D. Cowles, speaking of the report that Gen. Wheeler is a very poor man, says he has it from friends of the General that he is easily worth $350,000, and gives the further information that the General is a hopeless dyspeptic, and went into the Cuban war with the hope that a Mauser ball would hit him and cure his dyspepsia. We don't believe it, for no hopeless dyspeptic could shin up a tree with the celerity that Joe Wheeler can.

The Spaniards encourage their Generals by mobbing those who are forced to surrender. If Gen. Toral had gone on fighting and got his head shot off at Santiago he would never have been mobbed, as he was on his return to Spain.

A French doctor says if people would keep their mouths shut and breathe through their nostrils they would escape malaria. If some people kept their mouths shut they would escape making fools of themselves, too.

Lieutenant Blow reports that the Cristobal Colon cannot be raised. This is a blow to Hobson's hopes, for he believed she could be.

She has been there the guest of her cousin, Miss Mabel Gray, who was a popular guest of Miss Slocumb.

SOCIAL, THEATRICAL.

The Opera House the Announced Mecca of Wilmingtonians the Past Week.

LAST HOP BY ATLANTIC CLUB

Especially Successful Season on Wrightsville Beach—Y. M. C. Star Course Selected—Coming Attraction at the Opera House.

Wilmington's society contingent, that is that portion now at home, for very many of our foremost society folk are still away on their Summer outings, has been remarkably inactive during the past week. There has not been a single social function of any kind. It had been expected that a sort of grand closing hop would have been given by the Atlantic Yacht Club on Friday night, but the event was deferred until Tuesday night of this week, when it is expected that a thoroughly elegant closing hop will be given. The club house will not be open after the 20th. Carolina Club closed on Friday of the past week. Very few of the cottagers have yet left Wrightsville beach, but it is expected that during the coming week very many of them will close their seaside cottages and return to their town homes.

The beach season just closing has certainly been very successful, both from social and financial view points. It is certain that there has been a gain of at least 25 per cent. over last season in the number of people from a distance who have visited the beach. The Seacoast Railroad has afforded the public an excellent service and spared no pains in their efforts to contribute to the social life of the resort. Their efforts have certainly been heartily appreciated by the public. It is probable that many improvements will be made on the beach before the 1899 season opens. Another large hotel may be erected and board walks constructed.

The theatre has been the amusement Mecca of Wilmingtonians during the past week. The engagement of the Charles C. Vaught Comedy Company has certainly been all and more than was promised. People here feel especial interest in the company for the reason that their two weeks preliminary rehearsals were held in our Opera House. As a popular priced repertorie company the Charles Vaught Company deserves highest praise. They played before large audiences every night during the week. Yesterday's matinee was patronized by many ladies and children. Another good audience witnessed their presentation of "The Arabian Nights" last night. They will play "Ten Nights In a Bar room" Monday night and then go to Raleigh where they open a week's engagement Tuesday night.

"The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" will be at the Opera House Tuesday night. If press notices count for anything an evening fraught with "oceans of mirth" is in store for those who attend. The Richmond Times says that "If 'Charlie's Aunt' has encircled the globe with a laugh Miss Brown is close on her trail, and her remarkable escapades kept the audience in a roar last night."

Some of the most notable companies booked for the Opera House during the next few weeks are "Al. G. Field's Minstrel Troupe," September 29th; "1492," October 1st, and the Wilber Opera Company October 31st. Lessee Schloss and Manager Cowan intend that the present season shall be the most successful in many years.

The canvass for the Y. M. C. A. Star course will commence in a very few days. The list of attractions is completed and gives promise of proving highly successful. The course is changed somewhat from what it was when published in the STAR several weeks ago. It comprises the following:

November 25th, Eldredge Concert Company, (four people); December 27th, Rutger's College Glee and Mandolin Club (twenty-two people); January, Maxemillian Dick Concert Company (three people); February 3rd, A. A. Farland, banjo virtuoso; March, Old Homestead Quartette, and later in the month, S. M. Spledon, popularly known as the platform edition of Judge and Puck.

It has been definitely decided that the Miss Norma Foster benefit concert and entertainment will be given on the evening of September 27th. Miss Chasten and those who are assisting her in the preparations for the event feel very much encouraged by the hearty support accorded them by the people. In last Sunday's STAR the names of the principal participants were published. Rehearsals are progressing very satisfactorily and there is every indication that the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium will be crowded.

After Years of Service.

The old bay horse "Ed Northrop," after many years of service in the fire department, was killed yesterday afternoon. He was dreadfully sick and it was thought best to end his miseries. For a long time he pulled his part of the hook and ladder truck. For the past six months he had been laid off.

Lumberton Fair.

The annual Fair of the Robeson County Fair Association will be held at Lumberton, November 2nd, 3rd and 4th. All space for exhibits free.

FRANK GOUGH, Secy. and Treas. †

GUTHRIE TO THE FRONT.

He Will Soon Take the Stump and Plead the Cause of Good Government.

The Salisbury correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, in his letter of the 16th, says:

"General interest will be felt in the announcement that Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, will take the stump for white supremacy shortly. He will make several speeches in this section, probably one in Rowan county. This information comes to your correspondent from an unquestionable source."

This is good news indeed. Major Guthrie was the Populist candidate for Governor in 1896, and when he speaks "the words of soberness and truth" to those who supported him in that memorable campaign, they will be convinced that it is time for all decent white men to unite in a supreme effort to restore good government to North Carolina. Major Guthrie is one of the most effective stump speakers in the State and immense crowds will assemble to hear him at all his appointments.

WILMINGTON'S SCHOOLS.

All Have Thoroughly Qualified Teachers and Offer Excellent Courses of Instruction—The Openings.

Wilmington is blessed with a number of good private schools. The teachers are thoroughly competent and the courses offered are such as to guarantee a safe preparation for college or for business life.

The next session of the School for Young Ladies, Misses Hart and Brown principals, will begin Thursday, Sept. 29th. Courses in English, Latin, French, German, natural sciences, mathematics, book-keeping and music will be offered. Classes in art will be continued by Mrs. Devereux H. Lippitt. There will also be opportunity for lessons in stenography.

Miss Alderman's Select School will open Monday, October 3rd. Boys and girls are prepared for college or for business and particular attention is paid to the little children. In addition to the regular subjects, short hand and typewriting will be taught.

The Cape Fear Academy, Prof. Washington Catlett, opens to-morrow. Prospects for a good attendance are bright.

MONUMENT UNVEILING

At Bellevue Cemetery This Afternoon in Memory of C. B. Allen.

The monument in memory of the late Charles B. Allen will be unveiled at Bellevue Cemetery this afternoon at 3 o'clock. An oration appropriate to the occasion will be delivered by Mr. George L. Peschau. Mr. Jos. H. Hinton will be master of ceremonies for Live Oak Camp No. 6, Woodmen of the World, under the auspices of which the ceremony will take place.

A general invitation to all Odd Fellows and a special invitation to Hanover Lodge No. 145, of which the late Mr. Allen was a valued member, are extended in an advertisement in the STAR this morning to meet with the Woodmen at 2 o'clock this afternoon at their hall over Fishblate's store and accompany them to the cemetery.

The public generally is invited to attend the services at the cemetery. One of the best features will be the rendering of the hymns by the Munson Quartette, composed of four very fine singers, Messrs. A. S. Holden, R. F. Fowler, H. K. Holden and C. H. Cooper.

A MAMMOTH RATTLER.

Exhibited Yesterday at Bierman's—Many Viewed Him.

Mr. H. J. Bierman had on exhibition at his place on Market street, between Second and Third, a mammoth stuffed rattlesnake. He was first shown in the vicinity of the New Market and attracted a good deal of attention from the numerous passers-by. Mr. B. F. Turlington, Mr. Bierman's chief clerk, bought the hide for $5.00 and will ship it to Baltimore.

The STAR learned from Mr. Turlington that the big snake was killed at Island Creek by a colored boy aged 14 years, assisted by a colored child aged 5. Another snake, still larger, was also killed by the colored children, but its hide was too badly mutilated to be stuffed.

By exact measurement the snake is 7 feet, 3½ inches long not measuring the rattles and 2½ inches circumference. He carried twelve rattles and one button

A RUNNING MATCH

In Which an Officer is Outclassed by a Frightened Negro.

Ed. Morrisey, a negro wanted in Clinton for burning the guard house there, gave Policeman R. M. Murray a hot chase yesterday and in spite of the officer's speed and perseverance succeeded in getting away. Mr. Murray was on the lookout for Morrisey and was being assisted by special officer Herring, of Clinton. They located the negro at the intersection of the W. & W. railroad and Second street. The fugitive recognized Herring and didn't lose any time in getting away. He dashed down the railroad with Officer Murray in hot pursuit. After a long and tiresome chase, Mr. Murray found himself somewhat outclassed in sprinting and gave up the hunt.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Note important changes in schedule of Wilmington Seacoast Railroad.

— Prof. A. H. Yopp re-opens his piano, harmony and theory classes Monday, October 3rd.

— Spirits turpentine on this market sold yesterday as high as 29 cents per gallon.

— The regular convocation, Concord Chapter No. 1, R. A. M., will be held Monday evening, September 19th, at 8 o'clock.

— In the Mayor's Court yesterday there was only one case. Holly Thornton was taxed with the costs in a case for drunkenness.

— The STAR regrets to report the continued illness of 'Squire J. M. McGowan. However, he is somewhat better than on Friday.

— Five births, four white, one colored; and three deaths, one white and two colored, is the record in the health office for the past week.

— Secretary Diggs makes a good report of the work being accomplished by the 9.45 A. M. Sunday Bible class. All young men are invited to attend.

— Capt. Jas. I. Metts, chairman of committee, offers for rent the Seamen's Home, under the supervision of the Seamen's Friend Society, for one year from October 1st.

— During the past week there were only two marriage licenses issued; one each for white and colored couples. This is possibly the shortest week's sale for many months.

— The receipts of cotton at this port yesterday were 1,958 bales, against 4,950 bales for same day last year. Yesterday's receipts were considerably heavier than on any previous day this year.

— Capt. R. M. Capps, the well known former captain of police, and Mr. M. G. Silvia have formed a copartnership, and will accept building contracts. They are good fellows, both of them.

— The Pender News is the title of a lively campaign paper published at Burgaw. It is for a white man's government and the protection of the white women of North Carolina. Success to the News in its patriotic efforts.

— Changes have been made in the hours of some of the services at Grace M. E. Church as follows: The Sunday School now convenes at 3.30 instead of 4.30 o'clock, and the services at night begin at 7.45 instead of 8.15 as formerly.

— One of the Russian orthodox Jews asked a STAR reporter yesterday to state that his sect of the Hebrews take two days as holiday in celebration of the Rosh Hashanah. Their holidays do not end, therefore, until 6 o'clock this evening.

— The semi-monthly issue of the Sportsmen's Review of Sept. 15th is a very attractive number to those who indulge in field sports. This is one of the best publications of its kind in the country, and is one of the cheapest. Price, $1.50 per year. New York office, 19 Park Place.

— The Clyde steamer George W. Clyde, which put in at Southport for harbor a few days since, cleared yesterday morning for New York. The Clyde was to have left New York for Wilmington Wednesday, September 14th. On account of the delay at Southport going north she will not leave New York for Wilmington until Wednesday, September 21st.

PRIMARIES IN PENDER.

Well Attended and Enthusiastically Participated in by Democrats, Former Republicans and Populists.

Pursuant to a call by Dr. E. Porter, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, the Democratic primaries for Pender county were held in the various precincts of the county yesterday.

Bruce Williams, Esq., of Burgaw, was in the city yesterday afternoon and said that at Burgaw precinct 64 participated, against 18 in 1896. Of the number present there were two Republicans and quite a number of former Populists. At this place 88 Democratic votes were cast in 1896, and as the number at the primaries so nearly reaches this figure no better presage of Democratic victory could be asked. Much enthusiasm was manifested.

Mr. Williams also brings encouraging news from South Washington.

Mr. J. A. Montgomery returned from Burgaw yesterday. He confirms Mr. Williams' reports and further says that there never was such intense interest shown in a primary before.

Dr. E. Porter sends the following telegram from Rocky Point:

"Our primary meeting was largely attended this evening. Several former Populists took part in the proceedings. Perfect harmony prevailed. Strong resolutions were adopted, endorsing J. D. Bellamy, O. H. Allen, and Rodolph Duffy, and pledging undivided support to the cause of white supremacy and good government for all classes.

Markets to be Rented.

Alderman A. J. Hewlett, chairman of the Market Committee, announces in the STAR this morning that he will offer for rent the stalls and spaces in the several markets to the highest bidders on Tuesday, Sept. 20, 1898. He will be at the Fourth street market at 10 A. M., Front street market at 11 A. M., and Fifth ward market between the hours of 12 M. and 1. P. M.

THE HOME-COMING.

Preparations for a Reception to Company K, of the Second N. C. Regiment.

WHEN THE BOYS GET HERE.

Order of Procession—The Line of March. An Oration at the Armory—Collation Served by Ladies—People Asked to Decorate.

All interest centres on the arrival of Company K. The committee on reception, consisting of Messrs. R. N. Sweet, Capt. T. C. James, Capt. W. R. Kenan, Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr. 3rd, and E. P. Willard, has been working assiduously and have been assisted very materially by the ladies.

When the boys will get here still remains a matter of uncertainty. It is thought, however, that they will get here at 5.40 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by the Atlantic Coast Line.

A special to the STAR from Raleigh says that the Second regiment had its last parade yesterday and will lay down its arms to-day. Judging from this, Company K ought to get here pretty soon. Following is the Order of Procession.

Col. Roger Moore, Chief Marshal, and Aides.
Second Regiment Band.
Naval Reserves, Lieutenant McIlhenny commanding.
Naval Gun Detachment, Lieut. J. C. Morrison commanding.
Knights Pythias, Col. W. J. Woodward.
Boys' Brigade, Company A, Lieutenant Loughlin.
Baptist Boys' Brigade, Lieutenant Herring.
Wilmington Light Infantry, Captain James.
Wilmington Reserve Corps, Captain Kenan.
Company K, Second Regiment, Captain MacRae.
Carriages containing orator, Col. A. M. Waddell; chaplain, staff and foreign consuls.
Capt. Don. MacRae in charge of Battalion.

The line of march will be down Front street to Market and up Market to the armory. Of course business and private houses will, as usual, be becomingly dressed in the national colors. Let nothing be omitted that will add to the joyousness of the soldiers' home coming.

At the armory an oration will be delivered by Col. A. M. Waddell and there will be other speeches. Then a collation will be served such as only the good ladies of Wilmington can prepare for their sons and brothers who left to fight their country's battles. The chairmen of the different committees have been hard at work and the fruits of their efforts will be seen on the arrival of the boys.

SEPTEMBER SUPERIOR COURT.

Docket Remarkable For Dearth Of Important Cases—Wilmington Bar Arranged Calendar Yesterday.

The docket for the September term of the Superior Court is remarkable for a dearth of important cases. The fact is, the only case of special importance at all, that of Clayton vs. the C. C. Railroad, for damages in the killing of Engineer Clayton, has been continued and will not come up for trial during the term,

The Wilmington bar met yesterday, according to announcement in the STAR, at 10 A. M., for the arrangement of the court calendar. There are 251 cases on the docket. Of these the bar agreed to a continuance in 115 of them. There are sixty-five others on the motion docket. Several others were marked off the docket yesterday. Of the remaining cases about seventy-five or eighty are for back city taxes.

There will be a two weeks' term of the court, which will be convened Monday, September 26th, by Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson.

FIFTEEN MILE HANDICAP RACE.

Many Riders Already Entered—Big Posters Came Yesterday.

There is every indication that the big handicap fifteen mile bicycle race on next Friday, September 23d, will be the biggest thing of the kind that has happened in quite a while. Big twenty-four inch lithographed posters advertising the event were received yesterday, and will be posted at once. About fifteen riders have already entered for the contest, and several are yet to enlist.

The entry sheets will be open until the evening of the 21st. The races are to be open to all riders without regard to club membership, and will, as previously announced in the STAR, be under the auspices of the L. A. W.

New White Government Union.

The Democrats of the first and second divisions of the Fifth Ward met last night at Democratic headquarters to organize a new White Government Union. Mr. Asa Biggs was elected president, Mr. Geo. W. Cameron secretary; and Mr. R. A. Burnett vice president. Mr. Brooke G. Empie, the faithful organizer, was present and made some remarks explaining the methods of work followed by White Government Unions. Addresses were also made by Lieut. R. H. McKoy and Mr. Augustus Sikes.

The Union starts out auspiciously, having a large membership and an abundance of enthusiasm. It will meet every Saturday night.

No mineral waters in the world is superior to that of Jackson Springs for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Insomnia Nervous Prostration or Kidney, Bladder and Stomach troubles. Read advertisement in the STAR. †

A VERITABLE FIEND.

An Infuriated Negro Husband Makes a Tenacious Attempt to Take His Wife's Life.

The most atrocious case of assault with a deadly weapon with fiendish intent to kill, which has come to the attention of the courts here for some time was brought to light yesterday in Justice Jno. J. Fowler's Court. Haywood Howard was arraigned for assault and battery upon his wife with a deadly weapon.

The evidence showed that Friday at noon Howard attacked and unmercifully whipped and abused her because she had not prepared dinner for him, when there was nothing in the house to cook.

They live at the corner of 17th and Market streets. He struck her with a hoe-handle, and then knocked her down and beat her on the head and in the face with a brick and would have killed her had not a neighbor interfered. No sooner had the woman recovered consciousness than he came at her again and would have brained her had not neighbors interfered again. Not satisfied with that he went into the house, got his gun and declared his intention to shoot her on sight. He was, however, arrested by a deputy sheriff before he accomplished his purpose. He was committed to jail by Justice Fowler in default of a $100 bond.

THE WILMINGTON POSTOFFICE.

The Number of Letters and Papers Handled by the Employes Daily.

Anybody who doesn't believe that there is a large amount of business transacted in Wilmington will change his mind if he takes a look through the postoffice—the best barometer to a city's business—and watch the busy clerks and carriers. Yesterday Chief Clerk William Ulrich kindly furnished the STAR with figures showing the number of letters and papers handled last Thursday, September 15th.

Letters and papers were received at the postoffice as follows: 4,742 letters, 1,385 papers; total, 6,127 pieces.

Letters and papers delivered by carriers, 1,601; letters and papers delivered by "general delivery" and boxes, 4,526; total, 6,127 pieces.

There were received from carriers' collections for dispatching, 954 pieces, dropped in postoffice for dispatching, 4,897 pieces; total, 5,851 pieces. Total received and dispatched in one day, 11,978 pieces. This is a decidedly good showing.

SECOND N. C. REGIMENT.

LOUISIANA'S DELIVERANCE.

Louisiana has one day she celebrates which no other State in the Union has. It is the 14th day of September, her emancipation day, the day that she was emancipated from mongrel and negro rule and her government went back into the hands of her own people. That was in 1876, after the fearful ordeal of rapine and misrule by unscrupulous white men, most of them adventurers from other States, and by negroes who were led by these white men. That ordeal lasted for ten years, extending from the war through the so-called reconstruction period until 1876. They made Louisiana almost a wreck, and left but the land and houses which they could not carry away. Louisianians never forget the 14th of September and they thank God for that deliverance.

There is not a State in the South that did not have an experience somewhat similar to that of Louisiana, although others may not have been so severely tried. North Carolina effected her deliverance earlier than Louisiana, and sooner hurled from power the plundering gang who were pursuing the same methods that the Louisiana plunderers were, but met with more successful resistence because they did not have the powerful backing of the black cohorts which the Louisiana plunderers had. But we had experience enough in this State to need no reminders of the horrid conditions under Radical rule, when adventurers from other States, associated with natives who thought more of office than they did of the State, and negroes (who were led to believe that these adventurers and these office seekers were their friends and only friends) made laws for, ruled and plundered North Carolina. The true white men of the State rose up against them, captured the Legislature and stopped their devilment and their plundering and made the final grand effort in 1876, which finished the work and put the glorious and immortal Zeb Vance in the Governor's chair.

From that day until the mongrels wormed themselves into power North Carolina was under Democratic rule, and in all those years we had peace within our borders, and notwithstanding tronblous times in the financial field made marvellous progress.

Succeeding a period of misrule, of plunder, of turmoil bordering at times upon chaos, the Democrats came into power.

They found the State with a bankrupt treasury, with $25,000,000 of rapidly created indebtedness, (in addition to the previous honest debt) from which she never received a dollar of benefit.

They found many of the counties burdened with debt.

They found the public school system destroyed and the school fund stolen.

They found the State University closed, with nothing in it but a gang of so-called professors drawing pay.

They found the railroads in which the State held an interest being run by partisan appointees in their own interest and in the interest of the Radical party.

They found the credit of the State so low that her bonds were not recognized on the market.

They found enterprise strangled, neither capital nor immigration coming into the State, many of her sons going out to seek homes in other States and many more anxious to go.

The feeling between the races was bad, the incendiary's torch found work at the wicked suggestion of the devlish leaders of the ignorant black men, and what Governor Graham characterized as a "species of wild justice" was invoked to protect from the midnight destroyer, and punish the criminal.

Under wise, conservative, honest Democratic rule, all this was changed.

The State's credit was re-established.

Confidence in her integrity was restored.

The fraudulent debt was repudiated and the honest debt recognized and compromised.

The public schools were opened again, and as liberally provided for as the ability of the State would permit.

The State University was cleansed and reopened.

The counties were relieved from their burdens as far as possible and protected from excessive taxation.

The Judiciary was purified and made respectable.

Law and order was thoroughly established.

Good feeling between the races was restored and turbulence ceased.

The railroads in which the State had an interest were taken from the control of partisans who ran them for their own benefit and the benefit of the party, and put in the hands of honest, competent men who ran them in a legitimate business way.

Capital and immigration began to come into the State, emigration soon ceased.

Enterprises grew up and increased, new railroads were built, our towns and cities grew, until, considering the financial troubles through which the country passed and the scarcity of money in the South, North Carolina reached a degree of progress and prosperity equalled by few of the Southern States and surpassed by none, with the possible exceptions of Alabama and Georgia.

And in all that time, with this record of achievement (and only a partial one), no man has risen to charge the Democratic administration with oppression or with dishonesty, and not one single scandal can be laid at its door.

Compare, or rather contrast, that honorable record of twenty years with the disgusting failure and scandalous exhibition made by the present mongrel party during its brief sway so far, and then ask any honest, State-respecting man who has any self-respect, which he would choose.

With that kind of a man there could be but one answer, and that answer comes with emphasis, and a clarion ring that has never been as clear or sharp since the grand struggle in 1876, which won the victory that fully redeemed us then.

And we shall be redeemed from the mongrel party that has abused its trust and the people, for the men who rallied around Vance then, and their sons, have put on their armor, and the word has gone along the line that North Carolina must be redeemed and white supremacy restored.

A DOCKERY ORGAN PLEADS.

The Republic is a Republican organ, published at Rockingham, Richmond county, Hon. Office Hunter Dockery's home. It is not only his organ, but the Dockerys hold stock in it, and we think O. H. is one of the directors. It seems that the negroes up there are becoming saucy and claiming a right to their proportionate representation in the county convention, which has brought the following pleading article from the Dockery organ. It reads thus:

"We do not pretend to offer advice to our political friends, but it occurs to us that under the circumstances and condition of things generally speaking that the Republican convention to be held here on the 20th instant should be equally and fairly represented in delegation between the white and colored people. There is no man more willing to give the colored man the right that is his due than we are, but at the same time the colored man must not forget that the white man has his conventional rights. What we want to see is a fair white delegation at the convention on the 20th.

"We are the colored man's friend. The Republican party is is friend, as the past thirty-five years have proven, but we are opposed to either white or colored dominating the other. Equal privileges, we say; hence we say let there be an equal proportion of white delegates at the convention. This is in the interest of the colored man as well as all concerned."

We infer from this that the "brother in black" is giving the brother in white some trouble, and that the brother in white is alarmed lest the brother in black should come too much to the front and not give the brother in white a showing in that convention, and hence the organ mildly suggests to the brother in black that the brother in white has "his conventional rights" which should not be ignored.

Dockery's organ is willing to grant them "equal privileges," which logically means that Dockery's friends are also willing to split the watermelon in half with them, and give them one half the offices, which is what "equal privileges" will be understood to mean by the brother in black.

We have already found Office Hunter Dockery boot-licking "Dan Russell" whom he had before been denouncing as several kinds of a double d—— rascal, and now we find his organ, doubtless inspired by him, pleading with and cringing to the negro. What next?

ANOTHER OBJECT LESSON.

There are a great many negroes in Oklahoma Territory. In some sections, as in some sections of the South, they outnumber the whites, and have matters pretty much their own way. They draw the race line too. There was an effort made when the Territory was thrown open for settlement to make a negro Territory out of it, and a great many negroes were taken there from Southern States but many of them were disappointed in their expectations, found scuffling for subsistence a good deal harder than they were led to believe and many who could returned to the States whence they came, and the negroizing scheme fell through and was abandoned as a matter of necessity.

But there are a great many negroes there yet and they carry things with a pretty high hand when they don't go to suit them. The other day they lynched a Federal Judge because they found fault with his way of conducting business and his alleged failure to prosecute some cowboys, who in a row with some negroes shot and killed one of them. They got even by killing the Judge, whom they waylaid at night near his home, stripped, bound and hanged on a tree, and as a warning to other law dispensers scrawled the following and fastened it to his body: "Justice to negroes."

This means that the Judge who dispenses justice in that quarter must be careful that he does not displease the negroes if he hopes to remain long in the land and die a natural death. Another object lesson of negro ascendency.

THE BREAK IN CHATHAM.

A special telegram to the STAR Friday from Goldston, Chatham county, told of the grand Democratic rally there that day and of the number of former Populists—a hundred and fifty or more—in that precinct who had joined the Democratic party, and fallen into line with the friends of honest government and white supremacy.

On Thursday, the day before, the the Populist county convention was held. It decided to fuse with the Republicans—for the spoils—and thereupon ex-Senator Atwater and about a third of the delegates uttered their protest against that trading off of their party and left the convention.

Ex-Senator Atwater is the gentleman who some time ago served notice on the Republican machine managers and the would-be Populist bosses that there could be no more fusion and that the Populists could not be used to keep the Republican party in power. They had been used that way, had, as he expressed it, "breathed life into its dead hulk," and now decent, honest Populists as well as other people are paying the penalty. Since then Mr. Atwater has seen one of the most respectable representatives the Populists had in this State—Stroud—slaughtered and a Pritchard Populist nominated for his place in Congress through the manipulation of Senator Pritchard's collectors of internal revenue, two of whom were present and pulled the wires in the Populist convention at Raleigh.

The fact is the Populist party, or what remains of it in this State, is simply an annex of the Republican party, and is as completely controlled by Pritchard, Holton and Co. as the Republican party is.

Young Mr. Leiter says he will devote his efforts now to paying back to his pa what he lost on him—about $6,000,000. The old man will take care that Joe doesn't toy with wheat any more.

THE SINGING IN GOD'S ACRE.

Out yonder in the moonlight, wherein
God's acre lies,
Go angels, walking to and fro, singing
their lullabies.
Their radiant wings are folded and their eyes are bended low,
As they sink among the beds whereon
flowers delight to grow:
"Sleep, O sleep!
The Shepherd guardeth his sheep,
Fast speedeth the night away,
Soon cometh the glorious day;
Sleep, weary ones, while ye may,
Sleep, O sleep!"

The flowers within God's acre see that fair and wondrous sight,
And hear the angels singing to the sleepers through the night;
And lo! throughout the hours of day
those gentle flowers prolong
The music of the angels in that tender slumbersong:
"Sleep, O sleep!
The Shepherd loveth his sheep,
He that guardeth his flock the best
Hath folded them to his loving breast;
So sleep ye now and take your rest—
Sleep, O sleep!"

From angel and from flower the years have learned that soothing song.
And with its heavenly music speed the days and nights along;
So, through all time, whose fight the
Shepherd's vigils glorify,
God's acre slumbereth in the grace of that sweet lullaby:
"Sleep, O sleep!
Fast speedeth the night away,
Soon cometh the day:
Sleep, weary ones, while ye may—
Sleep, O sleep!"

— Whiteville News: There are more cases of malarial fever in this section just now than we have ever known at one time before. —— Toney McDuffie was shot at Chadbourn Monday morning by another colored man named McIntyre. Two balls struck McDuffie, one in his stomach and the other in his right breast. He was alive late Monday afternoon, but it is thought he will die. McIntyre has left for parts unknown.

— Monroe Journal: When Captain (afterwards General) McRae organized Company B, Fifteenth N. C. Volunteers in this county at the breaking out of the civil war, 123 men went to the front with him. Out of that number there are to-day living 53, so we are informed by a member who looked the matter up. —— Mr. Elisha W. Griffin, of Goose Creek township, died suddenly September 6th. Some time ago he was thrown from a horse and quite painfully hurt, but had recovered sufficiently to come to town. He was a brave and faithful soldier of the civil war, and took great interest in all reunions and other meetings intended to perpetuate the fraternal feelings of the soldiers.

AUTUMN COSTUME OF POPLIN FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

AUTUMN coats are in very great variety—short, medium, and three-quarter length—to suit all figures. Many of them, according to HARPER'S BAZAR, show a series of revers, and are belted, with basque effects produced by fancifully shaped hip pieces—another one of the season's modes.

A French gown of the new corded poplin in marine blue is combined with a poplin velours plaid of military gray and shadowy tones of red, a touch of tartan being very fashionable in the new fall costumes. The coat corsage of plain blue has its collar square in the back, and sloping off to wide revers in front, below which are short revers that taper to the waist line, faced with plaid velour, the vest beneath being of cream-colored poplin, trimmed in yoke effect with bands of velvet between insertions of ecru point de Venise.

The tartan is used also to face the high turn-over cuffs, and the cravat bow is of plaid. The small tailor sleeves have tiny caps of the plain poplin, and the fancy belt is of cut steel.

The skirt moulds the hips, and has a box-pleat holding all the fulness behind. Very narrow at the top, it gradually expands and sweeps outward in fan effect. At the bottom is a flounce, flaring at the front and sides without ripples, the width at foot being four yards. The upper finish is a black velvet piping.

The hat of latticed satin in black is trimmed with puffy loops and bow of gray blue velvet, through which is thrust a jewelled buckle, while behind is a bunch of curled quills in dull shades of red, blue, and gray.

Quantity of material for gown—blue poplin, 6 yards; plaid poplin, 4 yards; cream poplin, ½ yard.

POINTS POLITICAL.

POPULISTS COMING IN.

A White Government Union was organized here on Friday night last, and we have now ninety members. Six Populists have joined and others promise to come in, and we believe all of them will be with us before the 8th of November.—Whiteville News.

SLIPPERY MARION.

Senator Butler spoke at Jacksonville, Onslow county, Thursday, and according to a special to the Raleigh Post, "he abused the Democrats; called them liars and hypocrites." And yet, as Aycock said to Thompson at Concord, Monday, "he wanted to fuse with us."—Charlotte Observer

HOLDING SECRET MEETINGS.

Never since the dark days of reconstruction, when the "Red Strings" were holding secret meetings in out buildings under cover of darkness, have so many clandestine meetings been held as are now being held by the Rep-Pop combine against a white man's government. That is a dangerous party which holds its meetings behind closed doors. There is something rotten in that party which is ashamed of itself.—Monroe Enquirer,

"A GRAND SIGHT."

George H. White, the colored congressman from the second district visited the camp of the third regiment at Fort Macon last week and delivered a speech. Afterward the regimental adjutant spoke and said it was surely the grandest sight in all the world to see the only negro congressman address a negro regiment, every officer and man of which is a negro. They had a perfect love feast, and the day was one of the ecstatic enjoyment to the worshippers of both the little god Young and the big god White, both of whom are idols to their superstitious followers.—Morehead City Pilot.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhœa in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by R. R. BELLAMY. †

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, September 17.—The cotton market opened steady, with prices 3 to 5 points lower; the latter being in sympathy with a break of 1 to 1½ points in futures at Liverpool. Weakness developed immediately following the call under active liquidation of local long stuff by discouraged holders, and prices broke sharply. Hammering by the bears was indulged in to some extent, but present low prices and the recent heavy decline led the more conservative shorts to be on the lookout for a possible reaction on profit taking. A favorable weather map and fewer complaints of rot and shedding added to the woes of the bull crowd, as did also a marked increase in port and interior receipts. Clear weather in the middle and eastern portions and rains in the western portion of the cotton belt were said to have improved the outlook for a big crop very materially. Late in the forenoon futures were a shade steadier on covering by shorts who preferred the handsome profits in sight and a quiet Sunday to possible further igains early in the week. The close was steady with prices at a net loss of five to nine points.

"CONTEMPTIBLE PIE HUNTERS."

This Is What Butler Called Those Who Favored Co-Operation in 1897.

Here is what Marion Butler said in his paper, the Caucasian, in February, 1897:

"The co-operation of the Populists and Republicans in this State has been a dismal and disastrous failure. Only the contemptible pie-hunters see any good in it."

If you do not believe Marion Butler's paper said this, ask him whether it did or not. He dare not deny it.

If "co-operation" had no "good in it" in 1897, is there "any good in it" in 1898, when Negro Domination is staring us in the face?

What Marion Butler said in the Caucasian in 1897, is exactly what every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

AN HONEST HEART.

It Brought a Ray of Sunshine Into the Tiresome Depot.

"An all fired hot day, marm. Goin fur?" said an old farmer, addressing a lady who sat at his side in a railroad station waiting for a train.

The woman drew away her rich silks impatiently, frowning as if to say, "You're out of your place, sir," but she made no audible reply.

"An all fired hot day, I say, marm," said the old man in a louder tone, supposing that she was a little deaf. "Are you goin fur? Why," he continued, as no reply was vouchsafed, "I'm sorry you're deaf, marm. How long have you been so?"

"Sir," said the woman, rising, "do you mean to insult me? I shall complain to the police." And she swept haughtily from the room.

"Waal, I never!" exclaimed the old man, as he drew out the red bandanna and mopped his forehead. "Pretty tired, marm?" he continued, addressing a woman who had just come in, carrying a baby and a lot of bundles, and with two small children clinging to her dress. "Are you goin fur?"

"To Boston, sir," was the pleasant reply.

"Got to wait long?"

"Two hours. Oh, children, do be quiet and don't tease mother any more."

"Look ahere, you young shavers, and see what I've got in my pocket," and soon both children were on his knees eating peppermint candy and listening to wonderful stories about the sheep and calves at home. Next he pulled out a string and taught them how to play "cat's cradle." They were soon on the floor, happy as kittens.

"Now let me take that youngster, marm," he said, noticing that the baby wanted to be tossed all the time. "You look clean beat out. I guess I can please him. I'm a powerful hand with babies." In his big arms the child crowed with delight until he fell asleep.

"'Tain't nothin at all, marm," he said two hours later as he helped the woman and her charges on board.

Buying a pint of peanuts from a little girl and paying 12 cents instead of 10 cents, he munched in hearty enjoyment until his train was called.

"All aboard!" shouted the conductor, and the train started. "Something bright has gone out of this depot that doesn't come in every day," said one who remained—"an honest heart."—Success.

SAVING GRACE OF A HOBBY.

It Revives Hope and Enthusiasm and Makes Life Worth Living.

"A priceless thing is a hobby. The daily tasks by which hosts of women support life are favorless, barren, almost hopeless. To such ones a hobby may offer the dearest hopes of ultimate freedom from the unwelcome daily task. It will at any rate serve to entertain and give point and flavor to an otherwise blank existence," is the position taken by Carrie E. Garrett discussing "Woman's Dreams and Hobbies" in The Woman's Home Companion.

"Hobbies have the power to concentrate and absorb the scattered energies which might otherwise be expended in purposeless flirtations, building superfluous bonnets, rending cheap sensations, gossiping away precious moments, picking out our friends' foibles, dissecting our own emotions and wishing vaguely for everything which is attainable. If the hobby did nothing else but prevent these frivolities, it would be a boon to humanity.

"Man found out the value of hobbies long ago. Almost every man who is good for anything has a purpose which he thinks is quite the most magnificent one which a man could pursue. It is no matter whether it is lawmaking, pill-making or shoemaking, he pursues it with absorbing enthusiasm and strives to make the best laws or pills or shoes (as the case may be) to be found anywhere.

"Woman has found that it is not enough to merely look pretty; that love cannot be her 'whole existence' (the poet to the contrary notwithstanding), and that even with the richest plenitude of gowns, jewels and enjoyments life still needs a purpose. If it is at all a respectable purpose and pursued with general zeal, it cannot fail to thrive and increase and bear fruit."

Cuban Bric-a-brac In Vogue.

Curiosities and bric-a-brac from Cuba are now slowly coming into vogue. Oddly enough, they were quite fashionable 40 and 50 years ago. A favorite and one of the most beautiful objects imaginable is a bunch of crystals from one of the famous caverns in the limestone district. Some of these are as clear as rock crystal, and are not alone many faceted but are often covered in part with masses of large and small crystals of great brilliancy. When the faceting occurs in certain patterns, the crystal has the fire of a precious stone and, in a well lighted parlor will throw colored lights and fires in every direction. Still another beautiful object is a mass of fine fern leaf coral, which is found near the keys in the middle and eastern part of the island. Some of this is so delicate that it suggests a petrified cobweb.—Margherita Arlina Hamm in New York Mail and Express.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of It by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for womanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is oftimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life of any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time."

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR,

Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

Springer, of the firm of W. E. Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

Affiants further say that John N. Goins, business manager, L. D. Manly, foreman, John T. Howe, general travelling agent, and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and Republicans, and the said John T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897.

BOILS

Carbuncles

RUNNING SORES

CURED BY USING

Botanic Blood Balm (B.B.B.)

The Great Blood Remedy.

In either boils or their more aggravated form of carbuncle it surely indicates a diseased condition of the blood, which should have prompt attention on the appearance of the first symptoms. Eat the best you can get, and freely use Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.). This medicine will scatter the boils and heal the diseased flesh in a few days. Mrs. W. J. Steed, of Augusta, Georgia, had boils for several years past, as well as a carbuncle over the right eye. This spring she felt the symptoms of boils coming on again. While sewing she would prick the skin with her needle. The little sores would fester. Her blood was in a terrible condition. She took two bottles of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.), and was entirely cured, and she passed the spring without the annoying boils and possible return of a carbuncle. Her blood was relieved of poison matter by B. B. B., which is a powerful blood remedy. It is purely vegetable.

Running Sores or chronic ulcers are most frequently found on the leg. The real cause is in a diseased condition of the blood. Happily there is a cure in Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.)! Years ago Dr. Gilliam used B. B. B. for running sores, and no case since ever failed to yield to its marvelous power. We have over 400 testimonials of successful cures from B. B. B. of running sores. We give one or two.

Walter Bridges, of Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six years I had been afflicted with running sores and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard of without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefitted."

J. D. Watkins, Blakety, Ga., writes: "Old sores covered my entire person and itched intensely night and day. For several months I could not work at all. I commenced the use of Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) and began to grow better the first week, and am now sound and well, free from sores and itching, and at work again."

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is a scientific vegetable compound used by Dr. Gilliam in his private practice for blood diseases, such as Old Sores, Scrofula, Boils, Blood Poison, etc. It cured so many people that it was put on the market, and is for sale by all druggists at $1 per large bottle, or 6 bottles sent, charges prepaid, on receipt of $5. It has always enjoyed a large sale because it even after everything else has been tried in vain. Books of cures sent free of charge.

H. E. Thompson, Providential, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—A month ago you sent me a box of the Jackson Springs Water—twelve bottles. You know how fearfully I was suffering with an acute bladder trouble some weeks before. When I reached home I found the water awaiting me. I have rested and drank that water. I am a new man—my old self practically; my appetite restored; and the tenderness in the bladder nas disappeared. I think it is a wonderful water. I had been using for weeks before all sorts of lithia water, but the Jackson Springs Water went to the spot.

With profound gratitude, I am,

Yours. Respectfully, &c.,

CALVIN S. BLACKWELL.

The Doctor further says, it is "the best, I think, God has let run out of the earth for afflicted humanity."

This Water is unsurpassed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Insomnia, Nervous Prostration, or any Kidney, Bladder or Stomach Trouble.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 18.

IMPOSING FUNERAL MASS.

Commemorative of the Murdered Empress of Austria Celebrated in Washington by Cardinal Gibbons.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 17.—An imposing funeral mass, commemorative of the murdered Empress Elizabeth of Austria, was celebrated at St. Matthews' Catholic Church to-day, Cardinal Gibbons being the celebrant. The ceremony was official in character, under the auspices of the Austrian minister, and among those in attendance was President McKinley and the members of his cabinet, the ambassadors and ministers of foreign governments in their brilliant diplomatic uniforms, representatives of the United States army, navy and Supreme Court, and a large gathering from private life.

The Austrian minister, Mr. Von Hengelmuller, was attended by all the members of his staff. The military attache Baron Riedl, in the uniform of the Austrian imperial guard, and Captain Rodler, naval attache, in the uniform of the Austrian navy, acting as ushers Minister Von Hengelmuller wore the striking costume of the Hungarian "Magnate," denoting high diplomatic rank. It was of somber black, satin coat, knee breeches and high boots and a heavy black velvet cloak hung from the left shoulder. His sword, scabbard and hilt, was hid with windings of crape. As the carriages of the President and cabinet reached the church, Mr. Von Hengelmuller left his pew and met the President at the church door, escorting him to a pew to the front and right of the chancel. With the President were Secretaries Gage and Wilson, Postmaster General Emory Smith and acting Secretary Adee. Back of them, as representatives of the army, sat two of the officers of General Miles' staff, Colonel Maus and Lieutenant Colonel Michler, in fatigue uniform, while the judiciary was represented by Justice Harlan of the United States Supreme Court.

In the absence of the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote, sent a large floral cross of white roses and carnations, which was in the middle of the chancel facing the congregation. The embassy was represented by Captain Paget and Mr. Young.

The church interior was simply arranged for the occasion. Back of the chancel hung long crape draperies, covering the windows and darkening the altar. The pulpit was draped with heavy bands of crape. Cardinal Gibbons was assisted in the mass by a large number of priests and alcolytes, the usual rich vestments being put aside for those of black and white.

In his sermon the Cardinal said a grievous crime had shocked the civilized world; the hand of an assassin had struck down an inoffending lady, the consort of an Emperor of vast and historic regions. The crime had occurred not when the Empress was seated on her throne, amid pomp and majesty which might have excited the passions of some fanatic, but while she was peacefully walking the street. "The man that strikes at the ruler of a nation is an enemy of social order," declared the Cardinal. "Public peace and tranquility depend upon the execution of the law, on the ruler or executive of a nation depends the execution of law and the maintenance of stable government. It behooves us, therefore, to uphold the head of the nation, whose person, as a ruler, is sacred." The Cardinal paid a touching tribute to the beauty of character of the late Empress, and asked that prayers be given, not only for the repose of her soul but also for the solace of the stricken Emperor. Among all the tributes of sympathy which had gone to the Emperor, he said, none had been more touching and gracious than that of President McKinley. The Cardinal recalled the world-wide sympathy coming to the United States on the assassination of President Garfield which, he said, levelled all partisanship in this country, bringing together Democrats, Republicans, administration men and anti-administration men in a common sorrow. Thus out of the blood of a martyred President was sown the seed of patriots, and the Cardinal hoped that out of this last abhorrent tragedy would come also good lessons and good results.

The music following the mass was of a high order. After the ceremony the President and his party returned to the White House.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Postmasters to Issue Money Orders Payable at Their Own Offices.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 17.—The public will greatly appreciate the convenience afforded through an order issued to-day by First Assistant Postmaster General Heath which authorizes postmasters to issue money orders payable at their own offices. This practice has not heretofore been followed, and the new departure will be an accommodation to the great number of people, who, not having an account at a bank, desire to follow this economical and absolutely safe method in payment of bills, etc. These money orders may now be used, for illustration, in payment of gas bills, merchants and grocers bills, etc. In smaller places, the person indebted to a farmer may have an order drawn in favor of the latter, payable to him at any time and sent to him by a neighbor who obtains and delivers the mail for the neighborhood, the entire cost, say for ten dollars, being but ten cents.

Armour, One of the Purchasers, Denies Report That it is to be a Trans-Continental Line Extending from Ocean to Ocean.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The Times-Herald says:

"Philip D. Armour, Marshall Field and Norman B. Ream have secured control of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. They have made James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway, the dominating factor in the reorganization of the system, and have gained for Chicago and the Northwest what is practically a trunk line from ocean to ocean, controlled by Chicago capitalists. The price paid is not known."

Report Confirmed.

CINCINNATI, September 17.—Mr. E. A. Bacon, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railway Company, who has been engaged for some time with the New York committee, Spere & Company and Kuhn, Loeb & Company, bankers, and the receivers, in assisting in the re-adjustment of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, was in town to-day and was interviewed about the purchase of the control of the Baltimore and Ohio road. He was reluctant to discuss the matter, but after being advised that it had been published in Chicago, New York and this city, he said a number of representative men identified with large railway, manufacturing and commercial interests in the Northwest, Chicago, New York and other cities on the company's line, had been for some time negotiating for the purchase of a very substantial interest in the Baltimore and Ohio road, and that such negotiations had been brought to a successful conclusion; that under the reorganization ample means had been provided for cutting down grades, increasing capacity and facilities of the road and putting it in a condition to promptly and economically handle largely increased business. That the reorganization managers had also decided that the subsidiary lines, including the Baltimore and Ohio Southern, should be likewise treated, and arrangements were now being concluded to readjust the affairs of such lines and secure capital to put them in the same condition as the main line.

Mr. Bacon was very reticent, but it is evident that the control has been purchased, and from what has been learned here and through other sources it is certain that a much larger sum than $10,000,000 has been paid for it, and that the organization managers and himself are the parties who have made the negotiations.

Mr. Bacon declined to state whether the present receivers would manage the affairs of the company in the future, but it is well known that they are in close alliance with the new owners, and will undoubtedly be requested by them to officially manage the company's affairs.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17.—J. H. Maddy, the press agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railway, to-night said to a representative of the Associated Press that the statement made in Cincinnati to-day by E. R. Bacon, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, is semi-official, and added that no further statement would be issued at present. Receivers Cowen and Murray are not expected to reach Baltimore before Monday.

President Hill's Statement.

ST. PAUL, MINN., September 17.—President J. J. Hill, of the Great Northern Railroad Company, returned from Chicago to-day and made this statement to an Associated Press representative regarding the Baltimore & Ohio reorganization story:

"Any connection I may have with the Baltimore & Ohio is simply for the purpose of putting that road on its feet and making it what it was at one time—one of the most important roads in the country. Recently it has failed to such an extent that it was an incubus. Any intention I may have with regard to the Baltimore and Ohio, has no connection with the Great Northern. Neither has the Great Northern or myself any connection with any railroad between St. Paul and Chicago, and furthermore, neither do I expect to have any such connection. Some one who is responsible for statements to the contrary has an imagination that is altogether too vivid."

Further than this Mr. Hill had nothing to say regarding the matter.

Mr. Armour said the line is not to be a trans-continental line, but simply the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. There is no deal concerned with it relating to the lines between Milwaukee and Chicago.

MILWAUKEE, September 17.—Philip D. Armour was here to-day attending the annual meeting of the directors of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway Company, and practically confirmed the reports that he, in company with J. J. Hill, Marshall Field and Norman B. Rean had secured the controlling interest in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Mr. Armour said: "I dislike to say anything on this matter now; it is very delicate, as you must understand. There is, however, some foundation for the report sent out from Chicago yesterday."

"How about the reference made to the Chicago and Great Western and the Wisconsin Central uniting roads between the Baltimore and Ohio and Great Northern?" he was asked. "Positively no consideration has been given to either road as yet. I cannot say what will occur in the future, but no deal is on at present concerning these companies.

FAMOUS FAT WOMAN.

Death of Nahala Mullins, a Noted Tennessee Moonshiner.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., September 17.—News has just reached here of the death of Nahala Mullins, the famous fat women and moonshiner of Hancock county.

Mrs. Mullins weighed 550 pounds and lived on the top of a mountain where she conducted a "still" in defiance of the law. The officers were unable to apprehend her on account of her size, there being no way to get her down the mountain. Mrs. Mullins was one of the tribe of Elungons whose origin has been a mystery to ethnological students for many years.

COMMISSIONERS SAIL FOR PARIS.

Statements Made by Two of the Members on the Eve of Departure.

JUDGE DAY, SENATOR FRYE

Declare That Nobody Could Tell What New Conditions May Arise Which Will Have to be Decided Wholly by the Commisssioners.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, September 17.—The United States commissioners to conclude the terms of peace with Spain sailed to-day on board the Cunard Line steamer Campania, en route to Paris. The commission consists of former Secretary of State William R. Day, United States Senators William P. Frye, Cushman K. Davis and Geo. Gray and Whitelaw Reid.

Each commissioner is accompanied on the trip by his wife or other members of the family. In the party also are J. B. Moore, secretary and counsel to the commission; John R. MacArthur, assistant secretary, and wife; Frank Brunagan, disbursing clerk, and Mrs. Brunagan; Miss Atkinson and Miss McNaughton, stenographers, and Edward Savoy and Henry Freeman, confidential messengers.

Prior to going on board the steamer Judge Day said to a reporter; "We had a conference with the cabinet before leaving Washington, at least all of us except Senator Gray. All understand the wishes of the cabinet with reference to the terms of the treaty and I believe that there will be practically no change after our conference with the Spanish commissioners."

"Do you expect much opposition to the terms from the Spanish commissioners?" "I think that America's terms will be regarded as reasonable, therefore I believe the work of the commission will not be impeded by useless discussion."

Senator Frye would say nothing as to the intentions of the commissioners. As to the commissioners going to Paris with set duties and irrefragible conditions to be placed before the Spanish commissioners, the Senator said that school boys might just as well be sent if such were the case. He declared that nobody could tell what new condit ons might arise which should have to be met, discussed and decided wholly by the commission.

The Spanish Commissioners.

LONDON, September 17.—A special dispatch from Madrid says the Spanish peace commissioners were appointed to-day. They are Senor Monetro Rios, president of the Senate, who is president of the commission; General Corero and Senors Abarzuza, Villarrutia and Garnica. The Spanish commission, the dispatch adds, will start for Paris on September 25th.

A CHICAGO TRAGEDY.

Fritz Benfiel Killed Himself After Shooting Mrs. Youngberger and Fatally Wounding Her Little Son.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, September 17.—Fritz Benfiel, a Danish laborer, shot and killed himself to-day immediately after firing two bullets into Mrs. Minnie Youngberger and fatally wounding her 2-year-old son Emil, whom she was holding in her arms. Benfiel, who was of an ugly, quarrelsome disposition, threatened last night to kill his wife and five children, and Mrs. Benfiel caused his arrest to-day. He accused Mrs. Youngberger, a neighbor, of being a party to his arrest, and when she denied it he drew a revolver and opened fire. The boy died within an hour; the mother will recover. Benfiel then sent a bullet through his own brain, dying instantly.

His death, instead of being a grief to his family, was an unqualified joy. Within an hour after the shooting Mrs. Benfiel was holding an impromptu reception and acknowledged the congratulations of the neighbors who called. Minnie Benfiel, the eldest daughter, remarked: "I'm glad of it. He should have done it long ago." She and one of her sisters announced their intention of giving a theatre party to celebrate their father's death and their mother went them one better by saying that she would not even bury him. The county authorities, she said, could take the body and give it a pauper's funeral. She will pay the expenses but will have nothing more to do with the funeral.

Benfiel had kept his family in terror for years and was generally accounted worthless by his neighbors.

ONE OF CERVERA'S SHIPS.

The Maria Teresa Will be Floated Monday—Ten of Her Guns Recovered.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 17.—Captain Crowninsheild, who was to-day acting as secretary of the navy, received a cablegram from Commodore Watson at Guantanamo stating that the wreckers have recovered ten 6-inch guns from the Spanish flagship Maria Teresa and placed them on the collier Leonidas. The Commodore says that it is expected the Spanish ship will be floated next Monday and he will start for home Tuesday. He is under orders to take command at the Mare island navy yard.

The reports received at the Navy Department indicate that the big tropical hurricane which did so much damage in Barbadoes did not strike near the United States naval vessels at Cainamera, but passed well to the eastward.

It is learned that the monitor Amphitrite, which was recently reported as broken down at Mole St. Nicholas, Hayti, is now on her way to Norfolk in tow of the cruiser Yosemite.

DEMOCRATS AT WALLACE.

F. A. Daniels of Goldsboro Addressed the White Government Union.

[Special Star Correspondence.]

WALLACE, N. C, Sept. 17.

Two weeks ago last night the Democrats of this place met at Clements Hall and organized a white government union with fifty-two members. The second meeting was held last night, and after a telling speech by Mr. Frank A. Daniels, of Goldsboro, the membership was raised to 101. The ladies of the community attended and showed much interest in the meeting. The Democrats in this community are wide awake and will leave nothing undone for the success of the Democratic ticket in November. Duplin is getting herself in line for a white man's victory.

INVESTIGATION COMMISSION

To Probe to the Bottom of the Charges Made Against Departments in Connection With the War.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 17.—Mr. Evan P. Howell, of Atlanta, Ga., who was asked by the President to serve on the commission to investigate certain departments of the army in connection with the war, was at the White House to-day and formally accepted the appointment. In his interview the President assured Mr. Howell that it was his purpose to secure a commission which, without fear or favor, would probe to the bottom of the charges made by newspapers and individuals, involving the efficiency and integrity of officers of the army, and give to the country the facts. The Secretary of War had asked for an investigation, and the President thought it due to all concerned that the investigation be made at once by a commission in whose honesty of purpose and ability there could be no question. Under these circumstances Mr. Howell assured the President that he would gladly accept the appointment, as he regarded it a duty which no citizen should evade. Mr. Howell thought that there would be no necessity for the committee to leave Washington during the inquiry. Offices for its use would be secured in or convenient to the War Department, where the official records would be at hand. The only purpose of the President in securing, if possible nine members of the commission, is to lighten the labors of the individual members. According to his idea the work of the commission could be parceled out to sub-committees, so that the larger the commission the easier would be the work for the individual members. If, however, the President was unable to secure the services of nine members he would proceed with seven. He expected that in any event the commission would be completed within the next few days. The gentlemen who already have accepted, or who, it is confidently expected, will consent to serve, are Mr. Sexton, Gen. Dodge, Mr. Denby, Mr. Howell, Mr. Gillman and Dr. Keene. As to the power of the commission to compel offices and others to testify as to facts within their knowledge, the President assured Mr. Howell that if the commission met with any difficulty in that regard, which, however, he did not expect, he, the President, would know the reason why.

After a half-hour's conference with the President to-day Gen. Schofield announced that he would not serve as a member of the commission.

CUBAN INSURGENT TROOPS

Maintaining Order and Enforcing Rights of Property With Rigid Severity in Matanzas.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

HAVANA, September 17.—Advices from Matanzas report that the Cuban troops are maintaining order and enforcing rights of property with rigid severity in that district. The advices state that yesterday afternoon a colored man named Domingo Aldama was tried by court martial and shot on the estate of Los Angeles, for having stolen, the day before, an ox belonging to the estate. In the same district another prisoner, Domingo Picardo, who was accused of a minor theft, was delivered to the Spanish outposts at Los Molinos. These acts are looked upon as evidencing the sincerity of the Cuban troops in their efforts to enforce law and order. At the same time the Cuban troops throughout the island are suffering woefully from lack of food and clothing and their condition demands immediate attention and relief in order to prevent serious outbreaks of disease.

ARMY REORGANIZATION.

Plan Consists in Reducing the Volunteer Forces About One Half—A New Military Department.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 17.—General Miles, who has recovered from his slight attack of fever, and Acting Secretary of War Meikeljohn called on the President to-day concerning several important questions involved in the reorganization of the army on the basis of the changed conditions arising since the war.

In general the plan consists in reducing the volunteer army about one-half and then redistributing the remaining forces, regular and volunteer, to our new possessions and dependencies, viz., at Manila, Hawaii, Porto Rico, Cuba, Ladrones, etc., at the same time maintaining sufficient garrisons in the United States. In the redistribution of troops a new military department will be created, including Cuba and Porto Rico.

THE SECOND TEXAS

Regiment Decided to Receive Its Pay From the Negro Paymaster.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., September 17.—The Second Texas regiment was paid off to-day by Major Lynch, the negro paymaster. This is the regiment that refused to receive its pay from Major Lynch on account of his color, and the matter was referred to Washington. The regiment took a vote to-day and decided to receive its pay, this action doubtless being due to the fact that the regiment is to leave here on Tuesday next for home.

YELLOW FEVER REPORT.

One Case at New Orleans Announced by the Board of Health.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, September 17.—Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine Hospital Service, was to-night informed of a case of yellow fever in New Orleans, La., in the following telegram from President Souchon, of the State board of health:

"One case of positive yellow fever recorded here. All proper precautions taken."

BRIDGEPORT MURDER.

Miss Grace Perkins the Supposed Victim Arrives at Her Home While Funeral Arrangements Were in Progress.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MIDDLEBORO, MASS., September 17.—The supposed victim of the Bridgeport, Conn., murder, Miss Marian Grace Perkins, arrived at her home this afternoon in perfect health, to the great joy of the family and the unbounded astonishment of the entire community. Her father was not in town, for at the time of his daughter's arrival, he was on his way back from Bridgeport with the greusome remains which he had identified as those of Grace, and for which funeral arrangements, including the digging of the grave, had already been completed. Miss Perkins came from Providence, R. I., and was accompanied by her lover, Charles Bourne, and at first it was stated that the couple had been married. This was afterwards denied by young Bourne's uncle. Just across from the Perkins house is a cemetery, and only this morning, in response to the request of the uncle of Mrs. Perkins, a grave had been dug by the sexton in the family lot, and the new earth thrown up beside it could be plainly seen from the home. Half an hour after Miss Perkins' arrival home a local undertaker's wagon drove up to the house, and in it was the coffin which had been ordered by the family. The funeral arrangements had even gone so far that the family minister had been asked to conduct the services.

COUNT ESTERHAZEY.

The Missing French Officer Turns Up in London and Tells of Forgeries in the Dreyfus Case.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, September 18.—The Observer this morning states that Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazey has been in London for ten days past. The fact, the papers says is known to very few here and is not susposted in Paris. Count Esterhazey is occupying a flat near St. James street and Pall Mall, (S. W.) He has shaved off his mustache and it is not easy to recognize him. He explains that there is no longer justice for him in his own country and says that what he did was done in blind, unquestioning, brutal obedience to orders from a superior. "If I were ordered to take a gun and shoot my own brother I would do so without hesitation," Count Esterhazey declared. He added that out of the 1,000 documents in the Dreyfus dossier, approximately 600 were forged and that he was prepared to show by whom and in what circumstances the forgeries were committed.

WARM WIRELETS.

Governor Tanner has decided that the battleship Illinois shall be christened in champagne.

The War Department received a dispatch from General Brooke, dated Ponce, stating that three American soldiers died in Porto Rico From typhoid fever.

A case of yellow fever having been officially reported to exist in New Orleans, the State of Mississippi has quarantined against that city and no people from New Orleans will be allowed to enter Mississippi.

The Second Virginia regiment will leave Jacksonville, Fla., Monday afternoon for Richmond, where they will be furloughed, preparatory to being mustered out.

Star Pointer in a trial heat to beat his record of 1.59¼, paced a mile on the Belmont track in 1.59½. The fractional time was 28½, 57¼, 1.28¾. The time for the half mile, 57¼, is the fastest time ever made for the distance by a horse in harness.

The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Surplus reserve, decrease $2,836,375; loans, decrease $12,130,500; specie, decrease $8,866,700; legal tender, increase $1,071,700; deposits, decrease $19,834,500; circulation, increase $349,400. The banks now hold $44,240,400 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent. rule.

Miss French's Mexican Pottery.

The following is said to be altogether characteristic of Miss French (Octave Thanet), who is described as being amiability and sweetness itself. On one occasion an individual in common workman's garb came up the elevator to her apartments and presented himself at her study door.

"There's some freight for you jest come in on the steamer, mum," he said.

"Why, what is it?" Miss French inquired.

"Two crates of Mexican pottery, mum."

"But I haven't ordered any," she expostulated.

"Sure, but some friend is sending it, most like, and I come to ax fur the job of hauling it up for you," said the man.

"Why, I shall be very glad to give you the job, my man, and pray be careful in handling it," Miss French answered kindly.

"That I will, mum, sure, and there's $6 freight charges before the stuff can leave the yard. I'll take it along if you'll give me the change and bring the crates right up."

All this happened more than a year ago, and to this day Miss French is wondering what has become of the man, the $6 and the Mexican pottery.—Philadelphia Times.

PORTO RICAN ADVICES.

No New Cases of Fever at Ponce—Spaniards Have Coal to Sell—Steamers to Take Troops to Spain.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

SAN JUAN, Sept. 17.—Reports received here from Ponce say that no new cases of fever have developed there and the opinion is growing that the existing cases of sickness have been incorrectly diagnosed. The quarantine has, therefore, been raised, and Lieutenants Elkins and Wardman of Major General Brooke's staff and Lieutenant Fielder and six cadets from the cruiser Cincinnati sailed for New York to-day on board the British steamer Caribbee, which had arrived from St. Thomas.

The Spanish authorities have offered Admiral Schley 6,000 tons of coal at $6 per ton. He has cabled to the department at Washington for instructions.

It is reported that Captain General Macias to-day received information from Madrid that two steamers had sailed for San Juan for the purpose of embarking troops for Spain.

Fletcher's Musical Kindergarten.

Having completed the course in the Fletcher's Musical Kindergarten system, we are now prepared to teach the same. Our School will open on 4th of October.

The Object of this Method is to give a Fundamental, Systematic and Logical Musical Education in a way which pleases children—by appealing to their imagination, love of symbolism, and the picturesque so prominent in childhood.

The outfit and material used in teaching this system will be on exhibition at Miss Mary L. Alderman's school room, No. 15 South Fourth street, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week from 4 till 6 o'clock P. M.

This method is approved and endorsed by the following well known educators of Wilmington: Rev. A. G. Voigt, D. D., Prof. E. Van Laer, Miss Cammie Chasten, Mrs. Mattie L. Chasten, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Miss Mary L. Alderman, Mrs. E. Schulken.
